

Membership Benefits

Cities, towns, counties, schools and other special districts from around Colorado benefit from the alliance's strength in its shared resources and expertise in:

- Telecommunications law and policy
- Cable franchising and regulation
- Zoning of wireless communications facilities
- Broadband network deployment
- Public safety communications
- New technology initiatives and advancements
- Rights-of-way management
- Oversight of PEG access channels

Annual Membership Dues

POPULATION	DUES
Under 12,500	$550
Under 25K	$1,100
Under 50K	$2,200
Under 100K	$3,300
Under 150K	$4,400
Under 300K	$5,250
Under 500K	$7,875
500K+	$10,500
Associate (non-voting)	$1,250

Alan DeLollis, President
(720) 865-2308
ColoradoCUA.org

ColoradoCUA.org
info@ColoradoCUA.org
(720) 865-2308

The Colorado Communications and Utility Alliance represents its members in all areas of concern related to telecommunications, utility and rights of way issues.

Colorado Communications and Utility Alliance

ColoradoCUA.org
info@ColoradoCUA.org | (720) 865-2308

The Colorado Communications and Utility Alliance (CCUA) was formed as a Colorado nonprofit corporation in 2012, but its members have been working together in a similar capacity since 1992. In 2013 the CCUA formed powerful partnerships with the Colorado Municipal League (CML) as the Communications Policy Section and the National Association of Telecommunications Officers and Advisors (NATOA) as the Colorado Chapter.

Formal and Informal Advocacy

- Active member representation in council chambers, legislative halls, with legislators and service providers
- Representation in state and federal matters impacting local governments
- Nationally Recognized Legal Counsel and Representation
- Represented by Kissinger & Fellman, P.C. with expertise in government, telecommunications, utilities and are highly respected as advisors on these issues at the municipal, state and federal level
- All member communities are provided a set amount of legal advice on individual member matters related to communications as part of their CCUA dues

Model Agreements and Guides

- Model agreements for communities to use regarding rights-of-way, cable television franchises, small cell siting and others
- Best practice guides on items like social media and closed captioning requirements for PEG channels

Education

- Timely and valuable information on issues impacting your community
- Monthly board meetings (call in available)
- Email Listserv and members only website access
- Annual conference
- Networking opportunities

Connected Colorado

- Free video programming for government access channels or websites
- Opportunities to showcase your community around Colorado
- Issues of regional interest produced by member communities

